

MICHAEL D. MURPHY

OBJECTIVE

---

Applications Engineer / Systems Engineering or technical marketing position integrating GPS with other communication and information delivery platforms.

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

1991 – Present: Trimble Navigation Ltd. Sunnyvale, CA & Chandler, AZ      Applications Engineer

- Design, integration and installation, vehicle tracking systems.
- Third party developer support, GPS PCMCIA Card and mobile computing.
- Perform analysis of new GPS products and systems using MapInfo.
- OEM customer technical liaison, Trimble Japan KK, ( Tokyo Office )
- Assisted integrated GPS / Dead Reckoning test and development.

1990 Santa Clara County Transit San Jose, CA      Light Rail Mechanic

- Maintenance and repair of light rail vehicles.

1986 - 1990 FlightSafety International Fairfield CA Simulator Maintenance Supervisor/Trainer

- Installation of CAE C-5B flight simulators.
- Training of simulator maintenance technicians.
- Shift supervisor, responsible for maintenance and repair of 2 C-5B Flight Simulators.

1986 Boeing Services International Huntsville, AL      Flight Simulator Technician

- Integration of systems for B-1B flight simulator.
- Configuration and installation of Gould 32/9700 computer systems.

1980-1986 U.S. AIR FORCE.      Flight Simulator Technician

- Maintenance and repair of flight simulators for F-4D, F-16, F-111D, F4E, C5A, C-141B aircraft, familiar with cockpit systems on each.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

---

- 1979 Liberty Christian High School San Jose, CA : College Prep
- 1980 Air Force Technical Training Chanute AFB, IL
- 1986 Gould S.E.L 32/9700 Super-Mini Computer maintenance Ft Lauderdale, FL

ADDITIONAL

---

- Fifteen issued U.S. Patents, additional patents pending.
- Traveled extensively to support customers, countries include Japan, Korea, Singapore, Argentina, Netherlands, Canada, Italy.
- Internet and WWW experience.
- Willing to travel / relocate worldwide.
- Additional details available at www.mikemurphy.com/resume.html